

Dear Mr. / Ms.,

I had the pleasure of having Ms. Didou within in our company as part of a training period of six months in 2007.

Selected to help me on the gestion of advertising campaign, Emmanuelle has been able to assimilate with success the techniques of direct marketing. Emmanuelle has contributed a lot as a dynamic member of the team, with her involvement and sense of anticipation.

Her professional skills and her efficiency, have allowed me to entrust it with many projects directly related to our customers. Voluntary, autonomous, and serious, are some of the qualities treasured of Miss Didou that she has and may further develop in her future professional experiences.

I hope that Emmanuelle's candidacy will be the subject of your attention during the selection process. For more information, please contact me for that purpose.

Sincerely,

Lydie Faligot
Project Manager. Relationship Marketing.
